

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

2 April 1973

The Honorable Harry F. Byrd, Jr.
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Senator Byrd:

In his letter of 23 March 1973, Mr. Schlesinger told you that Robert Black, Executive Vice President of the Federal Reserve Bank in Richmond, would also be sending you the names of some possible candidates for a position with the staff of your Subcommittee on International Finance. However, Mr. Black has sent his names to this Agency rather than to you, and Mr. Schlesinger has asked that I forward them.

They are:

Dr. L. Aubrey Drewry
Dean, School of Business
Western Carolina University
Cullowhee, North Carolina

Dr. Seymour S. Goodman
Professor of Economics
Tulane University
New Orleans, Louisiana

Dr. Goodman would be interested in only a one year assignment while on sabbatical leave from Tulane.

Dr. Richard D. Haas
Assistant Professor of Economics
University of Georgia
Athens, Georgia

Dr. Alfred R. Guenther
Economist with Wachovia Bank and Trust Company
Winston-Salem, North Carolina

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]

Paul V. Walsh
Assistant Deputy Director for Intelligence
